4. Discussion of Kilkenny Housing & Rental Property Code: The Council will consider the public input during their council time in the regular city council meeting following at 6:30pm. The Rental Property Code has been debated numerous times in the past because of issues with properties having code violations. The City has no regulations and so the City has no say. The city is wanting a basic code for people's basic sanitary, safety and proper housing functions. Residents stated feeling like rentals are being punished and should be a concern for everyone and not just a certain group and other homeowners should be accountable for safety hazards. Residents/renters mentioned cost of renting prices will go up and mentioned the business renters give to the community.
5. Adjourn. Motion by Tammy Holicky, seconded by Terry Ferch to close and adjourn the special meeting at 6:30pm. Unanimous vote. Motion carried.
